3. Paulo is in a private chat in online chat room

MalW: I can't believe how much we have in common! It's so cool to finally chat to someone who really gets me.

Paulo: I know! I'm not sure how you found me on here but I'm glad you did. It's cool playing the levels at the same time.

MalW: You're so good at it, I'm getting loads better because of it.

Paulo: Blush!

MalW: Oh, I meant to say, I found a really cool secret level the other day. There's loads of codes you can use to access them but the codes are really hard to find. I found one, but it will only work today so you have to click it now. www.linktosecretlevel.maybe

Paulo: Thanks! Just clicked it

Paulo: My screen has gone weird... did that happen to you? This is my work laptop!

Paulo: Hello?? Where have you gone??
