

Resource 4: Sentence Starters and Key Terms

Below are some sentence starters you might want to choose to help you write your letter. You don't need to use all the sentence starters; they are here to give you an idea about how to begin.

Dear...

This is a case of...

In my opinion...

I would advise you to...

I predict that you will...

Even if it is difficult...

What might happen next is...

Some things to look out for in future are...

You can recognise social engineering by...

Support is available...

Below are some key terms you might want to use to help you add detail to your letter. You don't have to use all of these and you should think carefully about whether they are relevant to the character you have chosen to write to.

